Got a Strange Craving? The Man Can Help.

The plays at Burning Man offers many weird and wonderful treats.

This page is about the ones that you can eat. Or eat while partaking in an environment that you normally wouldn't be eating in.

These are the camps (and their descriptions) from the 2009 registered camps list that claim or seem to have bizarre (or at least unexpected) eatables/drinkables on hand for guests. Sometimes while subjecting them to things like "breathing cloths" and math.

Bring equally strange things to share.

If we missed any other camps feel free to add or edit this page.

IF YOU ARE THE OWNER OF ONE OF THESE CAMPS, feel free to write about it in more detail by creating a page and linking off of here.

The Highlights (feel free to edit):

- Frogma. \(Frogma?\)
- McMoney & Drugs. Might just be liberal brain food instead of the real thing.
- Love-U-Lopian sounds particularly shady.
